

Pakistan's Army and Agencies Are Killing and Abducting Baloch and Sindhi People Raise your Voice - Join the Protest to Stop It

- Pakistani military and intelligence agencies have kidnapped thousands of Baloch and Sindhi people
- Pakistani army has target killed scores of Baloch and Sindhi political leaders
- On 21st April 2011 agencies target killed Sirai Qurban Khuhawar, Senior Vice Chairman of Jeay Sindh Mutahida Mahaz (JSMM), and Roplo Choliani, a prominent leader of JSMM, and Nadir Bughti. Their car was sprayed with bullets and then their wounded bodies were set on fire.
- In last four months alone more than 100 severely mutilated bodies of Baloch leaders and workers have been thrown.
- The Pakistani agencies are committing crimes against Baloch and Sindhi people and against humanity.
- It is the moral duty of all Sindhi and Baloch people to raise their voice. It is the duty of the international community to stop these gross violations of human rights committed by Pakistan against Baloch and Sindhi people.

Roplo Choliani

Sirai Qurban Khuhawar

اسلام آباد والے بھارتیوں کی عدم بازیابی کیخلاف اور انہیں کا جبرک ہڑتال کے سہ چارگی ہے

Organised by:
World Sindhi Congress
International Voice for Missing Baloch Persons
Baloch Human Rights Council (UK)

Date: Sunday 8 May 2011, Time: 2-4 pm
Venue: 10 Downing Street London SW1 1AA
Nearest Underground: Charring Cross & Westminster

For further information, please contact:

Dr Haleem Bhatti 07939177286, Dr Mustafa Baloch 07934536430, Samad Baloch 07825087032